READ THESE INSTRUCTIONS FIRST

If you have been given an Answer Booklet, follow the instructions on the front cover of the Booklet.

Write your Centre number, candidate number and name on the work you hand in.

Write in dark blue or black pen.

Do not use staples, paper clips, glue or correction fluid.

DO NOT WRITE IN ANY BARCODES.

Answer three questions. You should divide your time equally between the questions you attempt.

At the end of the examination, fasten all your work securely together.

The number of marks is given in brackets [] at the end of each question or part question.

Answer three questions.

- 1 Consider the view that Plato's theory of Forms is 'too heavenly minded to be of any earthly good'. [25]
- 2 'If there are no moral absolutes, then morality is pointless.' Evaluate this claim. [25]
- 3 'A non-propositional view of revelation undermines religious truth.' Discuss. [25]
- 4 'Humans are free.' Critically examine the debate between libertarians, hard determinists and soft determinists about this issue. [25]
