- (b) Explain how Orla could investigate the effectiveness of this non-biological treatment of mental illness. [6]
- 4* To what extent can explanations of mental illness be considered socially sensitive? [10]

Section BOptions

Choose two options and answer all the parts of the question in your chosen options.

OPTION 1Child psychology*5

(a)* Outline the key research by Barkley-Levenson and Galván (2014) and explain what it tells us about brain development. [10]

(b)* Discuss whether research into pre-adult brain development is scientific. [15]

(c)* Emma is Head of Sixth Form in a secondary school. She is worried about risk-taking behaviour among sixth form students at the school.

Outline at least one suggestion a psychologist, using their knowledge of brain development, might make to Emma about how to reduce risk-taking behaviours among students in the sixth form at her school. [10]

OPTION 2Criminal psychology*6

(a)* Outline the key research by Memon and Higham (1999) and explain what it tells us about training police interviewers. [10]

(b)* Discuss ethical considerations in relation to collection of evidence. [15]

(c)* Tom was in his local supermarket doing some shopping when he witnessed another customer stealing some goods from the shelves.

Outline at least one suggestion a psychologist might make to the police regarding how to interview Tom about what he saw. [10]

OPTION 3Environmental psychology*7

(a)* Outline the key research by Wells (2000) and explain what it tells us about territory in the workplace. [10]

(b)* Discuss whether research into territory and personal space is ethnocentric. [15]

(c)* Sundip is creating an office where people can hire workspaces. She wants the office to appeal to as wide a range of potential clients as possible.

Outline at least one suggestion, based on research into territory or personal space, that a psychologist might make to Sundip about how to design her office. [10]

OPTION 4Sport and exercise psychology*8

(a)* Outline the key research by Kroll and Crenshaw (1970) and explain what it tells us about measurement of personality in sport. [10]

(b)* Discuss sampling bias in research into personality and sport. [15]

(c)* Kareem works as a sports psychologist. It is over halfway through the football season and a team has lost most of its matches. The manager of this team wants advice from Kareem about how knowledge of personality might be used to improve the performance of this team in the last part of the season.

Outline at least one suggestion that Kareem could make to this football manager about how knowledge of personality could be used to improve the team's performance. [10]
