

Incident	Appropriates s. Definition Any assumption of rights of an owner s3 Relevant Cases	Property s. Definition Includes money. Real and personal property. Land cannot be stolen. Wild mushrooms etc cannot be stolen unless it is for commercial. Wild animals cannot be stolen unless tamed or in captivity Relevant Cases	Belonging to another s. Definition Property is regarded as belonging to any person having possession or control or any proprietary right Relevant Cases	Dishonestly Sections: Definition not dishonest if D believes -he has right in law s2(1)(a) -he would have the others consent s2(1)(b) -the owner cannot be discovered s2(1)C Can be dishonest even if D intends to pay for property Relevant Cases	Intention to Permanently Deprive s. Definition Treat the things as his own to dispose of regardless of the other's rights. Dispose of includes 'dealing with' property Relevant Cases
Andrew and Yuri	Yuri takes the sunglasses and put them in his pocket. Yuri swaps the label to pay a lower price for the shirt – R v Morris	Yuri spends £50 on the lottery. The £50 was given for a specific purpose not to use on the lottery. S5(3) Davidge v Bunnett Andrew – he takes Yuri's football club	S5(4) money acquired by mistake can become theft. There is a legal obligation to return the money. Yuri doesn't realise he has too much change till he is outside the shop. At that point it	He doesn't have the right to deprive, he doesn't have consent as the other person is unaware of the appropriation, and he doesn't satisfy that the person to property belongs to cannot be found so	S6 – even if he was going to pay the £50 back, its different notes e.g., R v Velumyl Swaps the price tags around – proof to permanently deprive

		season ticket. He returns it 3 months later when there is only one match left. Permanently deprive as he deprives it for a period of time and has used the value of it Andrew - personal property - S4 information cannot be stolen as it is not	is practical for him to return it	he will satisfy the MR or dishonesty Doesn't have the right to deprive, no consent, and doesn't satisfy on not returning the property if the owner cannot be found therefore, he satisfies the MR	Takes the football season ticket and doesn't return till most of the value has been used up and deprives them for a period of time.
--	--	--	--	---	--